

29 countries with 2023 UN Humanitarian Appeals contribute
64% of global maternal deaths, 50% of newborn deaths and 51% of stillbirths.

Map created by Johns Hopkins Center for Humanitarian Health

IAWG MATERNAL AND NEWBORN HEALTH SUB-WORKING GROUP

Preventing maternal and newborn mortality with quality, respectful, and dignified care from pregnancy through the postpartum period in humanitarian and fragile settings.

85+ members

Representing 35+ organizations

Leadership: Building Foundation for Development (BFD) - Yemen, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), International Rescue Committee (IRC)

Scan QR code to access resources for MNH in humanitarian and fragile settings or visit iawg.net/imnhc

PRIORITIES

- 1 To advocate for and support renewed investment in improving access and quality of essential MNH care, with emphasis on the Minimum Initial Service Package for Sexual and Reproductive Health in Crisis Situations (MISP)
- 2 To support the implementation of global guidelines and indicators in humanitarian settings
- 3 To strengthen collaboration with development and cross-sector initiatives to support frontline implementers and improve access to quality care

